A haunted and hilarious farce! A psychic, two teenagers and some newlyweds end up in an abandoned hotel. The catch is . . .they don't know the others are there!

Sponsorship Opportunities

A Taste of History 2010

- ★ A side-splitting production of “A Long Night” by Fort Edmonton’s renowned Twenties Street Productions
- ★ Fabulous, unique auction items
- ★ Delicious food and drink

The Fort Edmonton Foundation invites you to participate in the re-creation of the Capitol Theatre in Fort Edmonton Park by supporting a Taste of History 2010 - a Capitol Evening!

Over the 55 years the Capitol Theatre stood at 10065 Jasper Avenue, it experienced many milestones of cinematic evolution, from the 1920s silent era, through the 1930s talkies and the Golden Age of Hollywood, to the emergence of independent and underground cinema in the 1960s.

While its predecessor’s primary function was that of a cinema, the Capitol Theatre in Fort Edmonton Park will be a multi-use venue. During park hours, it will take visitors on a multi-media journey through time with some of early Edmonton’s most colourful characters. As a rental facility, the 250-seat interior will provide theatrical, musical, and dance groups with high-tech features that will optimize their performance options. The theatre will feature an elaborate lobby space, backstage dressing rooms, a full-size screen, a foremost audio system, and digital projection capability.

The Capitol Theatre in Fort Edmonton Park will provide endless entertainment possibilities and experiences, from early talkie cinema in a luxury setting, to thoroughly modern performances in a state of the art facility.

Vision: To create and promote an internationally acclaimed living history experience.

Mission: Building, promoting and fundraising to celebrate Edmonton’s pioneer spirit.

Established in 1969, the Fort Edmonton Foundation is dedicated to raising funds for the development of capital projects in Fort Edmonton Park. Since its inception, the Foundation has raised more than $22 million for the establishment of over 80 projects within the Park.

The Taste of History 2010 Committee is most appreciative of its Presenting Sponsor, PCL Construction Leaders
